

CLOVERDAYLE

CLOVERDAYLE is a performing and songwriting country duo from Oregon that features Chad Hamar on rhythm acoustic guitar and Rachel Hamar on lead vocals. In May of 2008, Cloverdayle had the amazing opportunity to share the stage with Kenny Chesney at the Clark County Amphitheater as the opening act on his Poets and Pirates tour. Since the show with Kenny Chesney, Cloverdayle has also opened for national acts Lady Antebellum, Tim McGraw, Jason Aldean, Eric Church, Jake Owen, and Josh Turner. In 2010, Chad and Rachel teamed up with Brooks & Dunn songwriter / producer Terry McBride, (who wrote the #1's "Play Something Country" and "If You See Him, If You See Her" feat. Reba McEntire), and Dwain Rowe, (Long-time keyboard player for Brooks & Dunn), to embark upon the recording of a 4 song Cloverdayle EP titled "The Young & Reckless EP".

Most recently, Jason Aldean's band, (Rich Redmond, Tully Kennedy and Kurt Allison), offered to produce and play on a brand new 5 song EP for Cloverdayle, (which production will most likely begin in the fall / winter of 2011). Rich, Tully and Kurt also produced and played on the Nashville duo Thompson Square's new record, including their #1 hit single "Are You Gonna Kiss Me Or Not".
